++ Please help with hosting costs and support the Tap ++

This blog provides a regular comment on matters of concern to readers. It is often described as 'lively' 'enjoyable' and 'interesting'. The Tap is run by software professionals who don't invoice their work, but who have ordinary jobs and like everyone else, need some income from time to time. Hosting for the site also costs money each month. The Tap may be free but hosting it is not and with increased traffic comes increased costs. If you are enjoying the Tap, you might bear this in mind and send us a little thank you occasionally. In this current time of mainstream media narrativie control the Tap is a welcome source of alternative news and views. Thank you.

This is what the Ukrainian Presidential Office Deputy Head Colonel Pavlo Palisa published to the Internet on 5 June 2025. It is what his office projects the Ukraine to look like 18 months from now. The map is very revealing:

In other words, at the highest levels the Ukrainian government expects the Russian military to keep grinding, keep advancing, and keep gobbling up former Ukrainian oblasts.

By late next year, the Ukrainians are projecting that the Russians will have taken a little more than half of the Ukraine under their control, including the east, the northeast, and all of the Black Sea coastal and inland areas, thereby reducing the Ukraine to a far smaller, landlocked country with very dim economic prospects.
